How is the length of the combi cables measured?

The combination cable consists of a cable for the power supply and a flexible, 12G-capable BNC cable, combined in a braided hose. An eyelet is incorporated at both ends for strain relief.

The nominal length of the cable depends on the length of the power cable, the plugs are not included. The video cable is approx. 50-70 mm longer than the power cable as standard.

From:
https://docs.2eyetec.com/wiki/ - 2EyeTec Manuals

Permanent link:
https://docs.2eyetec.com/wiki/en/techinfo/laenge2

Last update: 2024/04/28 19:41